SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

At 2:48 AM Auburn Police officers attempted to stop a suspected drunk driver on Dairy Road in the City of Auburn. The vehicle did stop but as the officer approached and talked to the driver the vehicle sped away. A pursuit began and the vehicle drove to a residence in the 10000 Block of Attwood Road in Placer County. When the driver got out of his truck he was seen running into his residence holding a semi automatic handgun. He ignored the officer's orders to stop and drop the weapon and ran into the residence. Shortly after he got into the house he broke out a rear window and threw a dog out of that window. Shortly thereafter he threw out another dog and then a cat. He refused commands to come out of the house and would not communicate with officers. CHP Units responded to the area to assist with perimeter control and the Placer County Hostage Negotiation Team and Special Enforcement Team's were notified.

At approximately 7:00 AM negotiators made contact with the subject. After approximately one hour of negotiation's the subject surrendered peacefully and was taken into custody by SET members and turned over to Auburn Police officers. The subject, who was identified as Kile, was taken to the Placer County Jail and booked on numerous charges.
